Knew the time to leave had come when you pointed out your ring
Never could see what was in this matrimony thing Baby, baby, baby you sure made a noise when I left And your father started shouting lest you ironed my shirts
Fore I left
Wouldve liked to explain first but it was a split decision thing Couldnt see me settling down with a mortgage and a kid
Now I hear youve been looking for me Combing every single inch Youll probably find me in hyde park Try the hotel first then a bench
Baby, baby, baby Ive changed my address
I didn't mean to make you cry but I know it's for the best
Baby, baby, baby Ive changed my address
Its ok being in love girl, but then fun is second best
No ones gonna tie me down
Nobody tell me what to do Don't you see Ive got to be free Sorry baby that's the way it is - get with me I said maybe!
I didn't mean to break your heart and I know it's not your choice
Better think of it this way, there's other fools to entice That's right!
Baby, baby, baby Ive changed my address
I didn't mean to make you cry but I know it's for the best
Baby, baby, baby Ive changed my address
Its ok being in love girl, but then fun is second best
Baby, baby, baby Ive changed my address
I didn't mean to make you cry but Im sure it's for the best
Baby, baby, baby Ive changed my address
Its ok being in love girl, but then fun is second best
