[music: jos, lyrics: michel]

Staring blind; there's only
Darkness
Bothered by too many thoughts
Thoughts of this scattered
World
Filled with only bitterness

The more i try to ease my mind
The more sorrow i feel
The more i try to find the Problem
The less it seems to care

Walking through a land of memories
A world that's now irrelevant
Tomorrow's coming much to close
Still i've got no peace of mind

Getting angry at myself
Because of my self-compassion
As if there are no other problems
Than the life of luxury i live

Reality is fading away
Finally my mind is slipping blanc
Already sk's turning grey
Arival of another day
