Lettin' you go

I ..

I never apologized the day we said goodbye

I never realised my world would fall this far this far..

Why..

why did I turn my back and walked the other way

I could'nt find the words you wanted me to say now it's to late

And now I've come to far and were building up a wall between us and I've gotta find a way to get you back to me once again

If letting you go means I lose you forever then baby I know letting go was so wrong and I can't live without knowing we're not together

I should have known better for letting go

Why ...

why did the promises I made have to break and everything I gave you threw it all away is it to late

'Cause now I know for sure we own everything and more together

now I've got to find a way to get you back to me once again

and I can't live without knowing we're not together

I should have known better

for letting go

And now I've come to far and were building up a wall
between us

now I've gotta find a way to get you back to me once again

and I can't live without knowing we're not together

I should have known better

I should have known better

I should have known better

for letting go
