Think about you

You know you took my breath away The very first time you looked my way I like to think I am the kind of guy Not to easy to rock my world But you , yeah you make me say I believe When I look into your eyes You and me Come together touch te sky I think about you all the time I can see you in my mind I believe you are all that I need This is something I can't hide I think about you day and night It makes me wonder Do you dream about me All the things that you sang to me Girl you're touching the heart of me It gives me shiffers up and down my spine When I think that you could be mine It feels like we're ment to be I believe When I look into your eyes You and me

Come together touch te sky
I think about you all the time
I can see you in my mind
I believe you are all that I need
This is something I can't hide
I think about you day and night
It makes me wonder
Do you dream about me
Now do you?
Girl I believe

When I look into your eyes
You and me
Come together touch te sky
I think about you all the time
I can see you in my mind

I believe you are all that I need

This is something I can't hide
I think about you day and night
It makes me wonder
Do you dream about me
Now do you?
