I remember how it was a year ago
You didn't wanna know a thing about me
You said I wasn't old enough and didn't have it going on
But all changed suddenly

Got you on my phone line telling me Im so fine
Tell me Whats up with that?
To think you think I can't see right through you just think a window you go boy continue kissin' on my 'o

Im a big girl now Im not talking front & back
What I mean is how you see me
Im a big girl now, what I mean by that
Is the radio, the CDs, the Magazines an' TVs
Im a big girl now and you want t' associate
But back when I was nothing you didn't appreciate
Who's a Big Girl now, a Big Girl now
Everybody wants a piece of the Big Girl

Now for the girls who lie through their teeth
Telling Tom, Dick & Harry how they know me [yeah we were best friends, we went to school together]
How is it I don't remember talking to you...ever!
I don't know why you like to play these silly games, Im not your friend, I never was so why make these claims?
Im sick and tired of it but won't let it get me down,
I know its only big coz Im a Big Girl now

Im a big girl now, Im not talking front & back
What I mean, is how you see me
Im a big girl now, what I mean by that
Is the radio, the CDs, the Magazine an' TVs

Im a big girl now and you want t' associate
Back when I was nothing you didn't appreciate
Who's a Big Girl now, a Big Girl now (oh yeah)
Everybody wants a piece of the Big Girl

You say that I've changed, but I'm not so sure Coz why do I, feel as if I don't know you anymore
Now that I'm All That, say you want my love Oh now I got enough, Oh now I got enough little miss what's up? might think I'm stuck up, but we both know why, Big Girl

I'm a big girl now, I'm not talking front & back
What I mean, is how you see me
I'm a big girl now, what I mean by that
Is the radio, the CDs, the Magazines an' TVs
I'm a big girl now and you want t' associate
But make when I was nothing you didn't appreciate
Who's a Big Girl now, a Big Girl now
Everybody wants a piece of the Big Girl

I'm a big girl now, I'm not talking front & back (no no, oh how do you see me)
What I mean, is how you see me
I'm a big girl now, what I mean by that
Is the radio, the CDs, the Magazines an' TVs (oh yeah)
I'm a big girl now and you want t' associate
Back when I was nothing you didn't appreciate
Who's a Big Girl now, a Big Girl now
Everybody wants a piece of the Big Girl
