As far as this time will bring you together
As far as these words will hold you together
As far as this time will last for ever
As far as this skill will endeavour

As far as this dream will burst into madness
As far as this peace will string you to part
As far as this still will make you another
As far as this pill will hold you together

Oh God, it's you I'm calling down
Oh God, it's you falling
Wait
Oh God, it's you I'm calling down

As far as this film will take you together
As far as this fall
I wanted to hurt you
I don't let go, I want to say never
I won't let you go into the ether

Oh God, I love you coming
Oh God, I love to come with you
Down, down, down, down
