VERSION 1 11/09/2011

in the month of september of 2001 loosing their love once of the hero's celebrating for the hero's has been gone take them in the lifes and give them peace you need them from your heart is broken apart to look in their eyes with fear with fear oh yeah chorus

9/11

what you have and in your mind of them all over the world to see the hero's to come give the one you love to keep to fight in the war and all the love once is in the plaine they all gone from the lives of the family and friends you love to hold version 2

9/11

life and death will come into your heart to prey all the love once and give them love from the day you need to hold them all in your heart memories of the once you love to celebrate of their lives

9/11
