(Verse 1)

I, I, I, I, I

I did it on purpose I did

I took my actions and I hid them

I know just what I did with them

My words no different

I wouldn't let them anywhere near each other

I swear to god, I had to do it

You can't look at for reasons that weren't there babe

You used to say prove it, but you were right

I said one thing and did another to you

(Hook)

I lied and I wasn't confused

There's something that I need to tell you

Girl I think I'm allergic to you

I don't know why, I'm allergic to you

(The commotion and the feeling, I'm allergic to you)

Allergic to you

And I don't know why

Baby tell me what to do

(Verse 2)

Nothing is working I got pills

Just anything that can bring my actions and my words together

But it just ain't clicking

Girl tell me something cause since I been in this damn relationship

I been like screw it, who cares, you just take me back babe

It's a disease girl, you were right

I said one thing and did another to you

(Hook)

I lied and I wasn't confused

There's something that I need to tell you

Girl I think I'm allergic to you

I don't know why, I'm allergic to you

(The commotion and the feeling, I'm allergic to you)

Allergic to you

And I don't know why

Baby tell me what to do

(Instrumental Solo)

(Hook Out)

Girl I think I'm allergic to you

I don't know why, I'm allergic to you

(The commotion and the feeling, I'm allergic to you)

Allergic to you

And I don't know why

Baby tell me what to do
