[Verse 1]

He told you to close your eyes and put your hands in the sky
He could lead you,
You told him it would be a while, and then you smiled,
And then you said I believe ya
When you got there it was so cold,
Left you out there for so long

[Chorus]

Let me stop you from shaking baby
Girl you're frozen and breaking baby
Take both of my hands if you need to pray
I could stop you from shaking baby
He's got you breaking down
Got you breaking down

[Verse 2]

You don't need your coat tonight
Cuz girl I'm here I know the way I could take ya
But you been cold so long that I don't know if my Lil fire could reach ya
What he did girl was so wrong,
But the winter is over... So

[Chorus]

Let me stop you from shaking baby
Girl you're frozen and breaking baby
Take both of my hands if you need to pray
I could stop you from shaking baby
He's got you breaking down
Got you breaking down

[Bridge]

I can hold you together if you want
If you want it then I can say every word I never said
If you want it then I can stay
It's just one step to take
And you take it away

[Chorus]

Let me stop you from shaking baby

Girl you're frozen and breaking baby
Take both of my hands if you need to pray
I could stop you from shaking baby
Girl you're frozen and breaking baby
Take both of my hands if you need to pray
I could stop you from shaking baby
He's got you breaking down
Got you breaking down
