I'm afraid to say it
Don't want you to think I'm playing,
My mistake takes the pretentiousness down like I'm standing naked...
In the crowd and I'm sorry, I know that I'm wrong yeah
I'm wrong...
If I could, I'd go back I'm exposed, give me back my clothes
Cause I just can't take it

But look at you
Loving a fool
Making it easy
I guess it's cool
Naked with you, already seen me

Oh you got me so comfortable
Even when I'm wrong, comfortable
You don't mind the flaws
You've already seen them all
Still got me feeling so comfortable
Feeling so comfortable
Comfortable (x7)

You keep on forgiving, re-wrote all my wrongs in pencil..
When you stay, It makes me forget that I'm down now it's all so simple
Till the end
Even when I look down
Like I do
When I lie
Feels so good letting go I'm exposed
You can have my clothes

Cause I'm not afraid and la look at you

But look at you
Loving a fool
Making it easy
I guess it's cool
Naked with you, already seen me

Oh you got me so comfortable
Even when I'm wrong, comfortable
You don't mind the flaws
You've already seen them all
Still got me feeling so comfortable
Feeling so comfortable

It don't matter, it don't matter no
You've seen it all before
It don't matter, it don't matter
You've seen it all before
It don't matter, it don't matter no oh

So comfortable (x3)

Oh you got me so comfortable
Even when I'm wrong, comfortable
Still got me feeling so comfortable
