oooh she dont know what shes supposed to do make of driven in there lookin like a fool (?) from cryin dont know what happened to her oooh she said if she could just talk to you she say now she knows how important you were she beggin it just forgive her cant you hear her

(Chorus)

dont you hear her cryin and screamin now shes stuck in the mirror all that time she like go by she was on herself (?) got stuck in the mirror let me out
still stand there like a fool
let me out
put herself over you (?)
break the glass in case of emergency if you can hear her help her cause shes stuck in the mirror she wish she was on the other side of the reflection just to mention she cant hide from shes crying cause theres nothing inside her

she say now she needs you the way you needed her she beggin to come and see her check the mirror

(Chorus)

she got lost and she feels a difference dont leave her too long there every time she sees herself shes gonna remember that you loved her if she dont shes gon be stuck alone

(Chorus)
