my redeemer
he lives he lives today theres a comfort in knowing jesus lives today
hung him upon the cross buried him in the grave thought they had killed him dead i have a savior he rules the world today with power and all might

jesus lives today
O death where is thy sting grave wheres thine victory in three days the stone rolled away stone rolled away an empty grave proves what i say he lives today

(repeat)
(go back to 2nd verse)
