The sound of love is oceans far away
And i can love and i can check your fate
The sound that beckons me is from your heart
And i can't begin to say
'cause i don't really know just where i've been
And every desire my hearts gets in

Your love, it takes a little faith
And i know i have to wait my own good time, yes
Your love, i know i can't escape it
And i know that we can make it all work out

I found you lost and longing a jumbled past
Oh let's begin again
For she's not gonna last before this day is done
Every desire under the sun

Your love, it takes a little faith
And i know i have to wait my own good time, yes
Your love, i know i can't escape it
And i know that we can make it all work out

In the daylight love seems to come and go, oh
No more indecision and no more heartfelt division
I've seen a vision, oh

The sound of love is passing the city's decay
And people always searching a lonely disease
And overrunning
Run right to the faith
I swear that this love is strong
It's gonna carry me
And know that this dream and every desire

Your love, it takes a little faith
And i know i have to wait my own good time, yes
Your love, i know i can't escape it
And i know that we can make it all work out

I
No more indecision and no more heartfelt division
I've seen a vision, oh
