So you got me off
In the company car
Like a drag queen kiss
Did you dig too far? Hey

So you got me high
In a luxuride
Maybe I should take my life whiles it's good

So you got me back
Like a good-bye train
Like a cigarette drag
Like a lipstick stain, Hey

So you got me high
In a luxuride
Maybe I should take my life while it's good
So you woke me up
In a cellophane bar
In a cellophane suit
But I'm an analog star, Hey

So you got me high
In a luxuride
Maybe I should take my life while it's good
