Oh, I'm counting down
Hoping the time has come to let it out
Never a time I had tried to breathe
I feel suffocated, I'm on my knees

I felt the cold and dark run through my veins
Shivered when I heard her call my name

She burns like summer sun
I know she's the only one I want
Even when she's gone, wait

I felt the heat on my skin
When my head started to spin
Too much is never enough
She burns like summer sun for me

Oh, I'm holding out
Now that the time has come for giving in
So just for tonight would you keep me warm
Take away my pain, help me forget it all

I felt the cold and dark run through my veins
Shivered when I heard her call my name

She burns like summer sun
I know she's the only one I want
Even when she's gone, wait

I felt the heat on my skin
When my head started to spin
Too much is never enough
She burns like summer sun for me

No, yeah, she burns
Sha, la, la, la, la, la, la

The time has come I'm counting down
Hear my breath and I let it out
Now there's nothing left she can take from me

She burns like summer sun
I know she's the only one I want
Even when she's gone, wait

I felt the heat on my skin
When my head started to spin
Too much is never enough
She burns like summer sun for me

She burns like summer sun, oh, no
She burns like summer sun, oh, no
Burns like summer sun, sing it out now
Burns like summer sun for me
