When the days start gettin' warmer
And the sun starts sinkin' slower
Weekends go by faster and beer starts tasting colder Wanna tune into a station that takes me on a soul vacation
Hey there mister DJ, come on wont you please play

CHORUS:

One that we can dance to Start up a romance to
Make it pretty simple so we all can sing along
While cruisin' with the top down, crank it up real loud
A groovy little summer song (Yeah)

Make me feel the rhythm of warm tropical islands Take me to a beach somewhere where everyone is smilin'
Sippin' margartias and eyein' señoritas
I can almost see 'em swayin' once ya start playin'

(Chorus):

One that we can dance to
Start up a romance to
Make it pretty simple so we all can sing along
While cruisin' with the top down, crank it up real loud
A groovy little summer song (Yeah)

(Play that guitar now, come on)

Play something sexy to make her fall in love with me
Won't you please--- play One that we can dance to Start up a romance to
Make it pretty simple so we all can sing along
While cruisin' with the top down, crank it up real loud
A groovy little summer song (Yeah)

Play one that we can dance to Start up a romance to
Make it pretty simple so we all can sing along
While cruisin' with the top down, crank it up real loud
A groovy little summer song (Yeah)

My groovy little summer song (mmm)

(feels like summer time to me)

(pass me a beer)
