Where do you go when no one's watching only you can see?

I want to know how hot is that fire you burn for me Cause all my life girl I've been waiting on a love that strong

And maybe this one ain't it and I can tell it won't take long

Not as long as I'm the man that I am Light off shades down candles painting shadows on the wall

Ain't too hard to understand

What it does every taste every touch going deeper Awe and it's a feelin' that I can't describe

I know you wouldn't understand unless you were the man that I am

I want to see all those secrets down there where you hide

I want to be the only man that goes that deep inside Cause all my life girl I've been waitin' on a love that strong

And baby this one is it I can tell it won't take long

Not as long as I'm the man that I am Light off shades down candles painting shadows on
the wall

Awe and it's a feelin' that I

I know you wouldn't understand unless you
were the man that I am

Light off shades down candles painting shadows on
the wall

Awe and it's a feelin' that I

Light off shades down candles painting shadows on
the wall

Awe and it's a feelin' that I
I know you wouldn't understand unless you
were the man that I am

Let me touch you one more time
Let me taste what's on your mind
Let me be right here beside you When you wake up baby

I want to be the only man to touch you I want to be the only man that pleases you And teases you and takes you higher than you've ever been Longer than you've ever seen stronger than you've ever seen
