Last night I said to her
I didn't want to live inside a lie.
If she wants him
More than she wants me,
Let this be.
Shell come back to me.
Shell come back to me.
Shell come back.

All day I wait and wait
To hear her footsteps on my walkway.
She never came.
She never even called.
Shell come back to me.
Shell come back to me.
Shell come back.

Somehow I know it wont last.
Somehow I know it wont last too long.

Shell come back to me.
Shell come back to me.
Shell come back to me.
Shell come back to me.
