

Cajun Dance Party "Time Falls"

Time, it falls it falls it falls and I'm wondering what for,
New and new and new and new, it's what's round the door,
It's time, it's time, it's time,
It's time to be small,

Day comes and I'm wondering, I'm wondering what for,
Day comes and I spin round and my thoughts soar,

Stall stall; I'm stalling, I'm stalling,
More more; always grasping for that one bit more,
Blue day comes, and I need this, I need this.

Fine are you fine? you don't look very fine, your face has gone askew!
You've been tackling the wildebeest and I swear it's not you!
It's time, it's time, it's time,
It's time that's brought you down,

Day comes and I'm wondering, I'm wondering what for,
Day comes and I spin round and my thoughts soar,

Fall fall; I'm falling, I'm falling,
Fall fall, I fall down, do I break ground?
Blue day comes and I need this, I need this
