

James Taylor "Jellyman Kelly"

Visit "Jellyman Kelly" on MotoLyrics.com

Here's a song about jellyman kelly,
He loves jelly the most.
Ah, but most of all,
Jellyman kelly loves jelly on toast.

And here's the part about jenny mulhenny,
She's a fireman's daughter.
Yeah, but most of all,
Jenny mulhenny loves to boil hot water

Jenny put the kettle on, jellyman kelly,
Can he come home, jenny, can he come?
Jenny put the kettle on, jellyman kelly,
Can he come home, jenny, can he come?

Chorus:
Oh, can he come home, jenny,

Can he come home, jenny can he come?
Oh, can he come home, jenny
Can he come home, jenny, can he come?

Yada yada yada voo doo papa
Yodely doo
Da voo doo doo doo
Yaka yaka yaka yaka hum hon no
(repeat chorus)

That's the story about jellyman kelly-he still loves jelly!
And yes and maybe someday you and me, friend,
We can have tea with him!
(repeat chorus)

Visit James Taylor page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.