The evening's over
Another day turned out grey
I sit thinking of my lover
Who is many miles away

Should rather keep on walking
As I stumble 'cross the floor
Almost hear my lover's talking
I see the shadow at the door

I will follow after
When the time is right
And I've made up my mind
Just take the night away
Take the night away
I'll be movin' on
In the early morning
It's gonna be all right
All right now
Just take the night away
Take the night away
I'll be movin' on

Too weak to hurt each other

Too late to change the time
Are you looking for another
I see you dancing through the wine

I will follow after
When the time is right
And I've made up my mind
Just take the night away
Take the night away
I'll be movin' on
In the early morning
It's gonna be all right
All right now
Just take the night away
Take the night away
I'll be movin' on
Take the night away

Take the night away
Iâ€™ll be movin’ on
Take the night away
Take the night away
