Don't look now, figure it out somehow
The walls are still crumbling down, around us
Sinking sand, reach for a helping hand
The ending is all you can stand
From changing

The night is caving in on you
Place you get is nowhere new
I can't believe you've lasted this long

Even if it makes me happy
Even if it makes me smile
If you could tell me one way
When no word no lie
Even if it would be one thing
Even if it hurts my pride
If only you could tell it my way
When no word no lie

Sleep at night, wondering if you were right
Telling a little white lie, will ruin
In too deep, a lying can help you see
Lying can help you to keep, the world trning

The night is caving in on you
Place you get is nowhere new
I can't believe you've lasted this long

Even if it makes me happy
Even if it makes me smile
If you could tell me one way
When no word no lie
Even if it would be one thing
Even if it hurts my pride
If only you could tell it my way
When no word no lie

I, I should work it out
And try some ...up
Your words keeps on naturally
And flame mine watching out

Even if it makes me happy
Even if it makes me smile
If you could tell me one way
When no word no lie
Even if it would be one thing
Even if it hurts my pride
If only you could tell it my way
When no word no lie.
