Lost in my imagination
Things don't turn out quite the way they should
When I'm there they always seem to haunt me
When I'm not, they miss me

There's something on my mind
Cos bailey told me so, he told me
There's ways to be unkind
And ways to make amends for things that we have not seen yet

The guilty lover's road

Giving in to my addictions
Losing like I've never lost before I know I'm old but should I really want to
I know I'm old but here we go

There's something on my mind
Cos movies tell me so, they tell me
There's ways to be unkind
seen yet

The guilty lover's road

There's something on my mind
Cos movies tell me so, they tell me
There's ways to be unkind
seen yet

The guilty lover's road
The guilty lover's road
