No phone, no phone
I just want to be alone today
No phone, no phone

Ringing, stinging
Jerking like a nervous bird
Rattling up against his cage
Calls to me throughout the day
See the feathers fly

No phone, no phone
I just want to be alone today
No phone, no phone
No phone, no phone
I just want to be alone today

Rhyming, chiming
Got me working all the time
It gives me such a worried mind
Now, I don't want to seem unkind
But God it's such a crime

No phone, no phone
I just want to be alone today
No phone, no phone
No phone, no phone
I just wanna be alone today
No phone, no phone

Shaking, quaking
Waking me when I'm asleep
Never lets me go too deep
Summons me with just one beep
The price we pay is steep

I've been on fire
Yet I still stay frozen
So deep in the night
My smooth contemplations will always be broken
My deepest concerns will stay buried and unspoken
No, I don't have any change but here's a few subway tokens

No phone, no phone
I just wanna be alone today
No phone, no phone
No phone, no phone
I just wanna be alone today
No phone, no phone

No phone, no phone
I just want to be alone today
No phone, no phone
No phone, no phone
I just wanna be alone today
No phone, no phone
