"Come on, Come on"

We've been down on this road for a long time
With no one who can keep us alive
And though refuge seems too far to reach us
We can make it if only we'd try

Come on come on what are we all waiting for?
Come on come on is this what we're here for?
I've been talking to all sorts of people
About if it is likely we'll change
They all think we can but fear the end's more close
Than it should be

Are we ever gonna feel substantial
Are we ever going to stop this acting?
Will we ever have, an honest laugh
With out a care the world, with out care in the world
