So you say that you have nothing to give but you give me a way to say You're much too uncontrollable Give it a rest and let me show you how it should be, and how it could be, if you didn't Sell yourself short with things that distort all reality, banality should be your new nickname Your appearance may pass, but that will never last So before I witness tragedy I've got to cut all ties You've been searching way too hard to find a way to take away the pain
You've inflicted on yourself, get help, but stay away
from me
All the drugs might keep you up but you're going down So yeah I've got some hell to pay, for my mistakes, and all that I've taken for granted Maybe I'll wake up wiser, maybe it's time to get out of these habits they're so toxic that I can't breathe Sorry just won't do, I'm sorry I'm sorry I'm sorry Save it it's no use, I'm sorry I'm sorry

You've been searching way too hard to find a way to
take away the pain
You've inflicted on yourself, get help, but stay away
from me
All the drugs might keep you up but you're going down

This is who you are, this is what you are (Cause it goes on and on and on and on and on)
And it goes on and on and on and on and on It can't go on and on and on and on and on Oh it can't go on and on and on...

You've been searching way too hard to find a way to
take away the pain
You've inflicted on yourself, get help, but stay away
from me
All the drugs might keep you up but you're going down

You've been searching way too hard to find a way to
take away the pain
You've inflicted on yourself, get help, but stay away

from me
All the drugs might keep you up but you're going down

You've been searching way too hard to find a way to
take away the pain
You've inflicted on yourself, get help, but stay away
from me
All the drugs might keep you up but you're going down
