I need a hand to hold
One that won't pull away from me
And i need a smile
One that won't turn down on me
Cause i need a reason
To put my feet on the floor
And i just want security, given for all eternity

You said you'd stay, one too many promises
That you made in vain
No offense but there is only one
There is only one, only one to depend upon

Cause His love is forever
It's unlike anything that we know
How high, how low, how wide
How deep, how rich, how true, how strong

So take me where the water falls
Down on me and washes me
Take me where the water falls
Down on me, and lead me to where i'm free

My freedom is in God
