So many sleepless days and sleepless nights, I spend alone

Wondering if I'll make it, make it on my own Without someone to hold me, with that holding power if not for a lifetime at least for an hour

But this machine that clicks inside my head Oh, so cold I'm hanging by a string, never letting go

How my heart breaks and the tears roll It's you I'm thinking of, but don't let the sun go down on my love

Oh, sometimes I think I'm falling and no one is concerned
I'm headed down that pathway, the point of no return
But if I had your love, your sweetness My baby, my baby, to guide me safely through I'm absolutely lost when I'm without you

How my heart breaks, how the tears they roll There's an empty space, inside of my soul but don't let the sun got down

So many sleepless days and sleepless nights, you know I spend alone Girl I'm left with no one, no one to call my own
But this machine that clicks inside my head Oh so cold my baby, I'm hanging by a string never letting go

How my world's turned around almost to the ground It's you I'm thinking of, but don't let the sun go down on
my love
Save me, umm
