"Marching On"

(feat. Tank)

if it's true that love is war
then baby I'm a soldier
dodging the pain
fighting for change
my heart keeps marching on

the scars from every battle we had
only made me stronger
i laid down my life
so love can survive
(keeps marching on)

I'm out here standing
on the front lines
defending this instant
that's how i earn the stripes see I'm willing to turn my
to keep you in my life
whatever it takes
whatever they cause
i will gladly pay

if it's true that love is war
then baby I'm a soldier
my keeps marching on

(keeps marching on)

tension
building

but there's no giving up there'll be conflict
struggle
it don't matter we're tough enough we can do this
it's possible
to win it over those
whatever it takes
whatever the cause

after all the smoke lifts we gonna still be standing all the blood, sweat, and tears love will be demanding there will be some tragedies we gonna have some casualties never surrender
never wanna hear you say

are you done?
i give in
wave the flag
had enough i give in

so even when it hurts
still keeps marching
i know what it's worth
still keep marching
they'll put me in the dirt I'll still put keep marching no matter what the words I'll still keep marching
