[Tell me have you heard the story
That took place not long ago
Bout an angle of in heaven
They say she up and ran away from home
What if she had unfinished business
So that back on earth she had to flee
Well you know im so elated
Because she layin right here next to me
And when god woke up that morning
And he called called out her name
And when she didnt answer
Heaven will neva eva eva eva be Heaven will neva be the same....Neva be the same

Always dreamed that it would happen
Just didnt know exactly when
All my life ive been waitin for something for somthing amazing
Said it tok a whila but now i know
So tell me can i get a witness
If you beleive in miracles
And the proof i have is livid and my life will neva eva eva be the your life dont have to ge the same

At times it seems we take for granted
How precious life can be (Im not finished)]
