Long days and lonely nights
Makes the morning seem so bright
But when my feet they hit the ground
I know that I'm safe and sound

My foolish acts I don't have to be
More than just a memory
When I come on back around
It's the new me coming through, I feel

When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around

Don't ask me why I do that stuff
Take it too far it's never enough
Spiraling self loathing styles
Hanging out
With audiophiles
But when I start to wake

From the hypnogagic state
Feel that I can see the light
Come on up from day to night

When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around

But when I start to wake
From the hypnogagic state
Feel that I can see the light

Come on up from day to night

When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
When I come back around
Wake up and look all around
