It was such a surprise
I never saw you coming
Out of the blue, into my life
Like a star in the sky
Like a one in a million
Now I might never see you again
They say a man's gotta do
What a man's gotta do
And sometimes it's crazy
But we follow it through
Now I know why I'm here
And I know why I met you
And now it seems hard to believe
I ever wanted to leave
If I could have one last time
To hold you
I would say the things
I never told you
Like the way your love
Keeps me alive
I'd never leave you again
Never Again
You gave me wings
You taught me to fly
You gave me a reason
And now I know why
If I could turn back time
The road would be different
Now I might never see you again
If I could have one last time
To hold you
I would say the things
I never told you
Like the way your love
Keeps me alive
I'll never leave you again
Never Again
Now it seems hard to believe
I ever wanted to leave
If I could have one last time
To hold you
I would say the things

I never told you
Like the way your love
Keeps me alive
I'll never leave you again
Never Again...
