Did you know when you were holdin' me
By that fire in Jackson Hole
That you were gonna let me go?

And did you know when we were flyin' home
I was fallin' hard for you
I thought you were the one?
Were you only havin' fun?

When did you know
We weren't lookin' at forever?
How could we be so close
And still not be together?

Every dream I believed
Has now come down to just one question
When did you know it wasn't love?
When did you know it wasn't me?

How can you make a woman feel that way
While you never feel a thing?
Why did you do that to me?

How can you keep your heart set on freeze
While you set my soul on fire?
I don't understand it yet
I'm still tryin' to catch my breath

When did you know
We weren't lookin' at forever?
How could we be so close
And still not be together?

Every dream I believed
Has now come down to just one question
When did you know it wasn't love?
When did you know it wasn't me?

Oh, every dream I believed
Has now come down to just one question
When did you know it wasn't love?
When did you know it wasn't me?

Baby, when did you know?
