Im sick, sick and tired of your face
Looks at me like a stranger looks at stranger
Stole his cab on the street
When used to youd refuse to go to bed
Without a kiss
Id tuck you in real nice and tight
You smell like angels burning flowers
In a cathedral after hours
Devour me tonight

Will you just forget it
No I, I wont forget this

And I wish I could say that Im over you today
Its just a lie that I tell my friends
When we drink like kings
I want you waiting in the wings

Just to take me home

Remember June? That afternoon,
There were explosions across the room
When our eyes did those dances
Meeting every seven glances
And I got it real bad for you
Cuz you were new and I was sad
Sick of god and myself
And desperate to play the first few chords of love

Will you just forget it?
No I, I wont forget it

Youre just some stupid girl
Im just some stupid boy
I wish youd go get destroyed
No wait, I was kidding
This is silly
