One child tries to do the best he can Lay down takes it all in his hand A fever's running high, it's out of control My shoes are waiting by the old oak door

I'm changing lanes
Gonna run away where the city lights won't blind my face anymore
I'm going to London town, can you hear me
Just give me all you've got my girl
Here I am
I want to leave before you run me dry

I walk down Dover Street with the blood in my veins A cold breeze chills my soul when I remember things A fever's in the mist right ahead of me But the lights are kinder here and there's a guiding street

I'm changing lanes
Gonna run away where the city lights won't blind my
face anymore
I'm changing worlds
Gonna run away where the city lights won't blind my eyes anymore
Had to leave before you run me dry

I'm changing lanes
Gonna run away where the city lights won't blind my
eyes anymore
Going to London town, can you hear me
Just give me all you got my girl
Here I am
I'm changing worlds
Gonna run away where the city lights won't blind my
face anymore
Going to London town, can you hear me
Just give me all you got my girl
I'm sure

I had to leave before you run my dry
