It wasn't easy
You ran me around so long
It wasn't to tease me
It wasn't to show you're strong
You made your decision
With only a little help along

Nobody wants the worst for someone, it's true
He couldn't stand to be with no-one but you
Left on his own, must be so tough
But his unforgivable mistake
He didn't love you enough

Now I'm here and he is there
Right were we belong
He took so long to show he cared
His chance has come and gone,
His chance has come and gone

Nobody wants the worst for someone, it's true
He couldn't stand to be with no-one but you
But his unforgivable mistake
