ooohhh... mmmmmm...

expensive promises i made all of the chances that i take never learn to appreciate our time lie awake all through the night memories by candlelight keep them safe locked in side my mind

i heard you calling to me (you called to me) i know now i am complete (i am complete)
Was lost in the moment got carried away heard the sound of you calling my name
now i am complete

misplaced trust and honesty should have known the time to leave close my eyes and imagine i was blind opened up and said too much thoughts of us remained untouched
keep them safe locked inside my mind

now i am complete

now i am complete
now i am complete
la la la la
now i am complete

unsaid words communicate things that time will never take look for me and i'll do the same in time now tommorrow seems so clear whisper softly to your ear keep me safe locked inside your mind

i heard you calling to me (you called to me)
was lost in the momment got carried away heard the sound of you calling my name (sound of you calling my name)

i know now i am complete (i am complete )
now i am complete
