Don't kick me when you know
I'm down baby
I've got my reasons but you're cherry picking love grenades
Throwing them at me again

Don't let me see you with a sad face
Don't wanna see ya
Smashing up all those dreams
That's the way it's always been

All good
In the hood tonight
Did I forget to mention
A little bit of tension makes the world alright
(makes the world alright)

And there's some pain
You can't do without
That's the pain you're tasting
When you started walking out

Ooh mercy mercy
It's a hard game
When love is war
And war will never be the answer
I feel that rage again

This is the storm
You love to ride on
Your face s thunder
Tears are falling down like rain
On my window pane
(Keep on sayin it)

All good (all good in the hood tonight)

In the hood tonight (all good in the hood tonight)
Did I forget to mention

A little bit of tension makes the world alright

And there's some pain
You can't do without
That's the pain you're tasting

Walking out on me yeh, walkin out
Walking out on me yeh, walkin out
Walking out on me yeh, walkin out

All good (all good in the hood tonight)
In the hood tonight (it's good in the hood tonight)

And there's some pain
You can't do without
