Dust off that dusty photograph
And think of how we laughed
Roll up those shutters to your shop
'Cause now this circus got to stop

Flick through those dog eared magazines
When you were on the scene
But now that you're gone

There's never gonna be another
Never gonna be another like you
The people in the street are saying
There's never gonna be another
(Whoa, never gonna)
Never gonna be another like you

I watched a soul when it was young
You'd finished when you just begun
I'd like to take a feather from
The wings that used to carry you

So suddenly, you seem at peace
We know that you have been released
Don't think they'll cry for you tomorrow
They never cried for you that day
But the people in the street are saying to me, baby

There's never gonna be another
(Never gonna be)
Never gonna be another like you
When you were on the scene

There's never gonna be another
(And now that you're gone)
Never gonna be another like you

You stepped into the light
(There's never gonna be another)
And you are the sun now
(There's never gonna be another)
There's never gonna be another like you
Another like you on the scene

There's never gonna be another
Never gonna be another like you
And dust off that dusty photograph
And think of how we laughed, yeah

Now that you're gone
(I think of you, I think of you)
Now that you're gone
(I think of you, I think of you)

Now that you're gone
(I think of you, I think of you)
Now that you're gone
(I think of you, I think of you)

Now that you're gone
(I think of you, I think of you)
Now that you're gone
(I think of you, I think of you)

Now that you're gone
(I think of you, I think of you)
Now that you're gone
I think of you
