Baby, rock dust light star
Yeah, that's the one

Rock dust light star
And it's coming at you, baby, yeah

I'm a man on the moon
I'm hoping I come back to soon
Am I the only one to see light?
No use in getting down, pull your knees tonight

So dumped in love
Because I got no faith
I've seen those twisted lies
Thrown back into my face

I've heard the crazy dark rooms
Of the human race, I must be alone

How could it be?
Your gift to me
You're gift to me
A salvo of heavy artillery

There's nothing about your war
You can call it what you like
I know where I'm from
And it's cold and dark

'Cause all the sinners
Are just saints without the sparks
I'm having trouble, telling them apart, oh yeah

Coming at you
Rock dust light star
Coming at you, baby
At 36,000 miles an hour
Rock dust light star
Coming at you, baby
What you made of what you are

Now look and see

Those stars for you and me
Waiting like silent killers in the night

Atomic legions
You can never fight
I've never felt, I ever prayed
Don't have to join in
With the other slaves

I'm not the only one
Who feels betrayed
Yeah

See, the more I think about it
I'm going against the grain
I won't be born again
Salvation's coming from up high

Coming at you baby, through the sky
From up high, yeah

Rock dust light star
Coming at you, baby
Coming at you, baby

Rock dust light star
Coming at you, baby
Coming at you, baby

Rock dust light star
Rock dust light star

I'm a square pier in a round hole
Maybe there's no place left for my wounded soul
Maybe the King of Kings
Finally, lost control of it

Coming at you, baby

Rock dust light star
Coming at you, baby

Salvation's coming
Coming at you, baby

At 36,000 miles an hour
Coming at you, baby

Look up and see
Look up and see
Coming at you, baby
