Smile

Cause you are the one

Like beautiful birds

This is our song

I took you for a dancer

And now we're here alone

No other eyes to see us

We're on our own

So what's your occupation (Baby won't you smile)

Are you a fly by night? (Good to have you smile)

No time to waste in asking, I think that I'm right

And I can't help but love you when you smile

Then we embrace

Like beautiful birds

This is our song

You're the one baby

Just smile

We're lost on the breeze

Like beautiful birds in the sky

This is our song

And it's not too late to tango

And I want you all the time

Your lips were made to kiss me

Baby I like your style

I know I feel this good about ya

I still feel the same about ya

I know I feel this good about ya

And I can't help but love you when you smile

You are the one

All lost on the breeze

This is our song

You're the one baby

Just smile

Then we embrace
Like beautiful birds, yeah
This is our song
And I can't help but love you when youâ€¦

Come on smile for me
