Through muffled screams and swollen eyes
From lots of pills and alibis
I always find my romance in the emergency room
I remind you of everything that you hate
And you remind me I'm the one to blame

I'm fighting myself to get you out of my head
But I'm hanging off of every word you said
I'm fighting myself to get you out of my head
But I'm hanging off of every word you said

Forced heart beat and broken mirrors
Flaws and faults are held so dear
My reflection makes me sick

The pain we feel is nothing new
Prescription drugs and photographs
Love, loneliness and nervous laughs
What you call misery through anxious eyes
Is something I can't see
Is something I can't see

I'm fighting myself to get you out of my head
But I'm hanging off of every word you said
I'm fighting myself to get you out of my head
And I'm screaming loud enough to wake the dead

I'm fighting myself to get you out of my head
But I'm hanging off of every word you said
I'm fighting myself to get you out of my head
But I'm hanging off of every word you said
