Beyond.
In spite of the sunshine.
Piercing through this grief.
Your lies have put me in a state of disbelief.
Craving attention dissention for greed.
Loathing in the comfort of life's little luxuries.

Can't you see, beyond these lies,
Beyond these lies, beyond.
Can't you see, beyond these lies,
Beyond these lies, beyond.

People are talking the word is getting around.
Enough that it might just flip you upside down.
Deny it or hide it drowning it in the sea.
You know the truth is the one that will set you free.

Can't you see, beyond these lies,
Beyond these lies, beyond.
Can't you see, beyond these lies,
Beyond these lies, beyond.
