Yeah, I've got a strong urge to love you
You know it keeps getting stronger
If I don't see you soon
I just can't hold out much longer

Now you may have known much of others
Who had a talent to kiss you
But I know you forget them
When I show you how I've missed you

I can't wait to love you
I can't wait to kiss you
I can't wait to squeeze you

I can't wait to hold you
I can't wait to touch you
I can't wait to please you

I was getting tired of existing
Because life didn't inspire me
But now you've turned my mind on
Since I found that you desire me

I can't wait to love you
I can't wait to kiss you
I can't wait to squeeze you

I can't wait to hold you
I can't wait to touch you
I can't wait to please you

I was getting tired of existing
Because life didn't inspire me
But now you've turned my mind on
Since I found that you desire me
