If you find someone that you really love
Show that special someone you're worthy of his love
Or then someday, you may be someone just like me
Who is crying, crying for love that used to be

You must learn to give as well as receive
Show him how much you care and never never deceive
For once, I had a love just made for me
But I was so foolish, I just couldn't see

So today, look at me
Someone you don't want to be
Who is crying, crying for love that used to be
Crying for love that used to be
