I feel wonderful

The first moment before the first touch
We know the longing
We have to hold each other.
I'd drown you in love, and I'll suffocate your needs
Now we're healed.
We have our own language.

I feel wonderful.
I could skydive from the moon
Sail an ocean on my fingertips when the wind screams
my name
Take his hand and free to run, run, run to you

I feel wonderful
I feel wonderful
I feel wonderful

Collect your words
I haven't even gone
I silently smile
I even miss you in my sleep.
No rush, no lust, no lies
This journey is our love
You're my hero
From heaven did you come

I feel wonderful
I feel wonderful
I feel wonderful
