My deepest thoughts, my highest highs
Were part of you like sun in sky
My darkest hour, my closest friend
You gave me power to reach the end

Love will come - hold you again
Love will come - wipe away the pain
In my heart - call out your name
Driven worlds apart - picture in a frame

The sweetest dream, the coldest tear
Still haunt the room like you were here
Our ghost of love, our ghost of hate
The heart forgives, the mind can wait

Love will come - call out your name
Love will come - hold you again
In my heart - call out your name
Driven worlds apart - picture in a frame

Love will come - call out your name
Love will come - hold you again
In my heart - call out your name
Driven worlds apart - picture in a frame
