Looking back, on the road behind, I've been in the dark, I've been blind.
Turning left when I shod have gone right.
Oh but I can't go back, I can't rewind.
An wile the sky is turning jet a darker shade of blue, I think of what it's gone take to get close to you.
It's hard to face another day, and I just won't forgive
myself if I let this slip away.
I know it now, I know it's true, only your love will do.
If my regrets could reach your hart, you know I would rather die, then to be apart.
What is next, only time will tell, but to do without your love, is way to hard.
And every other girl I'm talking to, makes me realise
how much I'm missing you
It's hard to face another day, and I just won't forgive
myself if I let this slip away.
I know it now, I know it's true, only your love will do.
(only your love)x2
I would be a foul if I let this slip away.
(only your love)
yeaaaaaheah
(only your love)
only your love will do
An wile the sky is turning jet a darker shade of blue, I think of what it's gone take to get back to you.
(only your love)x2
I would be a foul if I let this slip away.
(only your love)
yeaaaaaheah
(only your love)
only your love will do
only your love will dooooohowohoooo
only your love will doooo
