I never thought that love could be so cruel
I never thought that i could be such a fool
We had it all and then you walked away
And now I'm holding out for yesterday

Runnin' around searching love in every night
I'm walking through the cold cold city-light
That's everything that's left for me to do
I guess I never can stop loving you

Show me now what you feel for me
Deep inside you can set me free
Take me out of this misery

Come back and stay
Come back and stay

Refrain (2x):
Love is a soldier
Love is a soldier
Breaking your heart
Breaking your heart

Love is a soldier
Love is a soldier
It's tearin' apart
It's tearin' apart

Love will tear us apart
