Visit "Know Why" on MotoLyrics.com

We walked the sands of time
And yet I can't figure what's wrong
We talked for hours at a time
And yet we never really made any sense at all

I don't know why
You do this to me, I'm falling farther again and again
and again
I don't know why
You do this to me, I'm falling again

Time after time
Tried to make it work
But it always fell apart in our hands
Making up excuses to how we could pretend Didn't we know that it would fall apart in the end
I don't know why
You do this to me, I'm falling farther again and again
and again
I don't know why
You do this to me, I'm falling again

Oh you keep on telling me everything's gonna be fine
But we're gon be enemies if we keep wasting our time

I don't know why
You do this to me, I'm falling farther again and again
and again
I don't know why
You do this to me, I'm falling again

Yes I'm falling again and again
